

Newspaper Source Plus

This database includes millions of full-text articles from newspapers, newswires, and news magazines. In addition, it offers television and radio news transcripts and ongoing daily updates from popular news sources, including Associated Press and CNN Wire.

Using Newspaper Source Plus

1. Login with your library barcode and PIN.
2. From the home page, use the search bar to find articles on a specific subject. For an advanced search click the link below the search bar.
3. You can also browse newspapers by clicking Publications in the top left corner. Browse an alphabetical list and click a publication.
4. Click a month in the right column to expand the available issues. Click a date. You will be redirected to a list of articles from that issue.

Images from newspapers can also be found by clicking the Images tab in the top menu bar.
